Dear little daughter, at Christmas-time
I chose this card with its little rhyme,

DECISION

Believing that the Lord Jesus Christ died for me, I now receive Him as my Saviour, asking Him to blot out all my sins. I will trust Him each day, will acknowledge Him before others, pray and read my Bible daily.

HE FOUND THE ANSWER

Everybody is talking about Juvenile Delinquency. It has become one of our nation's most urgent problems. What can we do to stop it? What is the cause? But no one seems to come up with an answer. Mr. Carl Black, a young man of twenty-five was a delinquent, a seemingly incurable one. But something has happened to him. He has evidently found a cure. Listen to him tell his story.
I spent nearly all of my life serving Satan and destroying the temple of God. As a boy of seven I started separating myself from God by stealing money from an elderly lady who trusted me. From then until I was twelve I was stealing little things, robbing cars and playing hookey from school. At the age of twelve the Juvenile authorities had me picked up and sentenced me to the Maryland Training School for Boys. The 13 months that I spent there only taught me to hate the law and what it stood for. After my release I knew that they would be watching me so I behaved for about two years. Then Satan went to work and it wasn't long until I was back to stealing, drinking and trying to act big. The law finally caught up with me when I was 16, for breaking and entering, and sentenced me to the West Virginia Industrial School for Boys. After ten months I was released. I went straight for a while and everything was going along fine. It looked as though my problems were licked. I even served three years in the United States Army. After being discharged I worked for about a year. I was sure of myself. I could take care of my own life. Soon after, however, I started drinking again. It wasn't long until I lost my job. Having no money, I started making plans to get it by stealing. So at the age of 23 I was right back where I had started, in jail for burglary and grand larceny. I was sentenced to 18 months in the Maryland House of Correction. So my own way had failed, and even the training under State Institutions had failed. After seven months I was released on parole to the Hagerstown Union Rescue Mission. There, for eight months, I sat under the sound of the Gospel in misery before I accepted Christ. Then I turned myself over to Him. That was the answer to my needs. I am happy now in Christ and the more I hear of Him the happier I am. Many blessings are mine since Christ has taken over my life. He is making the decisions for me. Now I am able to tell others about Christ here at the Mission as I serve Him full time. I am thankful for this fertile field of work where God is speaking to hearts.

Say Friend, have you found the answer to your heart's needs? You will find it in the Lord Jesus Christ. Open up your heart and pray, "Lord be merciful to me a sinner and save me now for Jesus sake." "For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved." (Rom. 10:13) He is just the One to meet your every need.

"These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God."
