In the sunshine of Easter,
my heart seeks a message
for one who is dear.
And bright as the blossoms
its bloom and its cheer.
Are the glad, loving wishes
on spring's happy way that greet you today.

Sing a song of Christmas,
To bring you happy cheer,
The tune I cannot write at all,
The words are written here,
Merry Christmas!

Does Christmas fill the heart with cheer?
I'll say it does!
And bring back old time memories dear?
I'll say it does!
And does it make me wish that you
May share the joys that others do,
And have a MERRY CHRISTMAS too?
I'll say it does!

Dear Letitia,

No doubt you will be greatly surprised to hear from me. I just thought I would write you a little note to let you know that I have not forgotten you and your confining simple.

I do hope you and all of the family are well.

Remember me to Frederica and tell her write me a nice New Year letter. Love to your Mother and Father also.

Please write me real soon.

Always a Pal
