GREETINGS
'Twas the night before Christmas
And all on my mind
In a good wish for you
Of the happiest kind!
Mr. M. W. Barnum
City
The old times so jolly and clever
Like the stage coach have long been passé
But one thing we'll cling to forever
The old-fashioned wish of today—
A MERRY CHRISTMAS
Mrs. Isaac Benjamin
Curtis
Mrs Letitia Barnum
From your Uncle
W. W. Barnum
This is the blessing of Easter,
To turn aside from care,
And thrill with the spring’s rejoicing
In a purer, clearer air
May happy thoughts of springtime
Blossom within your heart,
And ever the Easter blessing
Be of your life a part.

From mother
Mr. J. W. Barnum
every day
you Good and up on your way
May Fortune smile

Happy Birthday

Valentine Thoughts of You

I may not often see you
As days roll into years,
But I can think about you,
And that's a thought that cheers!
